Description

An amazing a beautifully drawn antique Isfahan rug, with a classical medallion design. A very fine weave on this rug dating from around 1910. Purchase this exquisite antique rug online and we will deliver this rug to your home with our excellent anti-slip rug underlay included. Or book in a showroom visit or home visit to see this rug up close. We love helping customers find the perfect rug in your preferred way. The colours in this antique Isfahan rug are sublime, with soft natural dyes and the drawing of the design has been executed perfectly. Excellent fine wool pile and finely cut as you would expect from a workshop rug such as this, some minimal wear on the side-cords which can be improved by our expert repair workshop if required. Some minor areas need tidying up a little on the sides which we will do before selling this piece. The general condition is very good, cleaned and ready to be used as a beautiful decorative item for the floor. We offer the service of viewing any of our carpets and rugs in your own home, a free, no obligation service we have offered for over 30 years. Roderic, Stephen and Kristian have been working with antique rugs since 1990 and...
