Description

A small Regency rosewood writing table. Standing on shaped feet with tapered supports, united by stretchers and above a single frieze drawer with slide under. The top has a rising top with original leather inset writing surface and cross banded edge. To either side are satinwood banded flaps that open to reveal compartments for writing implements. The table retains its original turned wooden knobs, working lock and a very good colour and waxed patina and is in very good condition. 750mm high, 610mm wide and 400mm deep. English. Circa 1830.
