Description

A rare survivor from the late 17thc / early 18thc is this early bronze bell, made by William Cor, who had a foundry in Aldbourne, Wiltshire from around 1696 to 1722it is cast with his initials WC below his makers mark, which is a Dabchick....the bell is in very good original condition with a fine patina....these little bells are getting very collectable and so now are much harder to find..! English. C1696-C1722.
