Description

A Victorian period, from the second half of the C19th, painted cast iron and teak slatted garden or park bench, approximately 5ft wide. Fully restored, the pierced cast iron ends have been stripped and repainted. The slats have all been replaced in teak. Even the coach bolts have been replaced with period style reproductions. No expense has been spared to make this bench as it would have been new. Unlike modern benches made in cheap materials, this fully restored Victorian bench is only made with the highest of quality materials. And like good antique furniture will be good for the decades and centuries to come. Dimensions: This bench measures approximately 75 cm (29.5") tall, 152 cm (60") wide, and 64.5 cm (25.375") deep. The seat height is approximately 42 cm (16.5") at the highest point. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This chair is in excellent fully restored condition. Only very minor odd marks and blemishes. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
