Description

A very unusual and fantastic quality Regency occasional table, crafted in the esteemed manner of Gillows of Lancaster, is a testament to the elegance and sophistication of early 19th century design. The table exudes a rare and fantastic quality, with its proportions meticulously drawn to create a harmonious balance that pleases the eye from every angle. The tabletop, a crowning achievement of craftsmanship, is veneered with the finest quality mahogany, selected for its rich and lustrous grain. Over time, this surface has developed a superb patina, a warm glow that only the passage of years can bestow, enhancing its distinguished appearance. Beneath this splendid top lies a foundation of equal merit. The table's structure is robust yet graceful, embodying the timeless beauty that Gillows is renowned for. Every element, from the delicate scroll feet to the refined ornamentation, has been executed with the utmost precision and care. Presented in showroom condition, this occasional table is not merely a piece of furniture but a slice of history, ready to grace the most discerning of interiors with its lovely quality and impeccable taste. It is an heirloom piece that promises...
