Description

A 1930s Continental pine dresser featuring three glazed doors (with two shelves inside) above two small drawers in the upper section. The base includes two drawers above two doors (with a single shelf inside). The top and base sections can be separated for easier delivery. The dresser is in good condition for its age, although I just need to find keys for the door locks. Currently, it is in bare wood and can be purchased for £700. If you prefer it waxed, the price is £797. Dimensions: Height: 80 inches Base height: 35 inches Width: 46 inches Top depth: 14 inches Base depth: 19 inches
