Description

A fine and impressive, vintage onyx and 9.50 carat coral, silver necklace; part of our diverse necklace and onyx jewellery collections. This exceptional, fine and impressive vintage necklace has been crafted in silver, with an 18ct white gold clasp. This impressive necklace consists of nineteen onyx links alternating with twenty coral beads, totalling 9.50cts; each gemstone conjoins via silver chain links. Each onyx link is comprised of opposing interlocking circular segments, creating a three-dimensional classic Art Deco bead design. The necklace secures to the reverse with an 18ct white gold spring-loaded bolt ring fastening. This impressive vintage onyx and coral necklace has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as silver and 18 carat gold. The necklace is supplied with an IDGL gemstone grading report card; due to the nature of the shaped onyx panels a carat weight is unavailable. Condition This impressive necklace is excellent quality, set with impressive onyx panels and coral beads displaying fine colour. The necklace is an excellent gauge of silver and gold and is in excellent condition. Reflections in...
