Description

It would appear that his Carved Occasional Table was commissioned by a serving British Airman in India in 1925. The RAF Insignia is carved in the centre of the top along with the country and date. However, something was 'lost in translation' and the Royal Air Force became the Royal Air Fours. A lovely example of when Received Pronunciation goes awry. A rare survivor and splendid conversation piece. Height: 22.75 inches (58 cm) Width: 15 inches (38 cm) Depth: 15 inches (38 cm)
