Here is a fine quality antique English Georgian side table, constructed of mahogany, incorporating a single drawer, circa 1820, in good condition. The table boasts a single-plank top (a sign of quality), with a moulded edge, above a single working frieze drawer. The drawer incorporates the original brass lions head brass ring-pull handles on oval backplate escutcheons. The pine-lined drawer is constructed with hand-dovetail joints. The drawer runs smoothly and closes flush to the frame. The Georgian side table stands on four chamfered block legs. The Georgian table has been constructed in the traditional manner for t...
