Description

Amazing Heals of London Antique Teak Garden Dining Set – Labelled The most fabulous set of English Edwardian antique teak Heals garden dining set we have ever had into stock. It is in unbelievable, Heals Tottenham Court Road showroom condition, never been stored outside, or used, such a very rare find in such original condition and complete with the Castles Baltic Wharf, Westminster, London makers label, they were the ship-breakers that reused the teak timbers from de-commissioned battleships to make the teak garden furniture for Heals London. The Heals square teak garden dining table has lovely silhouette legs with a slatted table top and under shelf. The four teak dining chairs fit snugly under the table top and they have slatted seats and back rests with square legs that are joined by an X stretcher. In superb condition, would look amazing in a loggia, conservatory, courtyard or garden. A very special Heals teak antique garden dining set that dates to around 1910.
