Description

An Exceptionally Good Quality Regency Period Rosewood Rectangular Occasional Lamp Table, Having Superbly Figured Top With Satinwood Crossbanded Decoration, Over Two Mahogany Lined Drawers With Boxwood Strung Decoration And Replacement Brass Handles, Raised On Elegant Square Tapering Legs With Original Brass Castors. An extremely charming, well made, elegant little occasional, or side table, which is perfect for a whole variety of different spaces around the home with a lamp, or photo frames, or anything else which one desires perched upon it. The two shallow drawers offer a good storage option for those items which you want easy access to without having to root around in the bottom of big deep drawers cluttered with lots of other items. The table has clearly been constructed in a high level workshop, boasting high grade rosewood veneers, satinwood banded decoration and mahogany lined drawers which is certainly something that not just any workshop could afford to do. As one would therefore expect the quality of craftsmanship involved in its construction is therefore also superb. Overall this table is in good, functional condition and is a great little size. It comes with...
