Description

A lovely small tea caddy dating from the early 19th Century. It is made from mahogany with a nice inlaid panel on the top and it is edged in boxwood stringing. Inside it has two lidded compartments with small metal knobs and a nicely inlaid lining under the lid. It is in good condition for its age. There are some signs of age and use, some minor marks and knocks and small losses but no major damages or anything detrimental. The inside is generally clean and tidy but it does not come with a key. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
