Description

Introducing an antique quality early 18th Century oak writing table, versatile as a desk or dressing table, boasting a classical Early Georgian design. With remarkable age and charm, having witnessed around 12 generations of life, this piece showcases a unique patina. Crafted from solid wood with sturdy construction and no loose joints, it exudes character and allure as a rare find. The drawer glides smoothly, providing practical storage. Measuring 79cm in width, 56cm in depth, and standing at a height of 70cm (with a knee hole measuring 54.5cm), this adaptable piece complements various spaces. In good antique condition, it bears historic knocks, marks, cracks, repairs, wear, imperfections, and alterations, including some treated historic extinct woodworm holes. Additionally, some feet have been historically replaced. Identified by stock number 8560, this item is accompanied by a 30-day, no-questions-asked money-back guarantee. Benefit from competitive shipping rates for both domestic and overseas destinations, ensuring efficient door-to-door service.
