Description

Heals of London 1930's Oak Side Table A lovely quality solid English oak side table, made for Heals of London by Arthur Reynolds in the thirties. Inside the drawer would have had the Heals circular makers label, but this has long gone, leaving just the recess hole. This Heals oak side table has a single drawer to the front that has a raised panel drawer front with the original brass ring handles. All four legs are chamfered to the outer edge and flare slightly towards the lower leg. The legs are joined by side stretchers, in superb condition throughout, all very original. Would work as a small writing table / desk too. Dimensions Height: 74cm (29.37") Width: 91cm (36.11") Depth: 52cm (20.63") Additional Info The leg clearance is 60cm.
