Description

A highly decorative set of four Victorian prints of dead fish and game. The prints depict hanging game with two identical ducks, one fish and one brace of English partridge. The prints are quite remarkable in that they are lithographs that have then been embossed to give the creatures a three-dimensional look. The quality of the prints is excellent with some wonderful detail and all are in good condition with only the odd very minor mark. The set are framed in the original oak frames of Oxford design which work very well with the subjects and are all in good condition. The four make a dramatic decorative impact and are ready to hang. C.1880. Overall sizes in inches each, including frame: 16 ½ by 13 ½
