SoldItem Reference: SA1073359*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A very rare and masterfully crafted model of a parrot. Kutani model of a parrot, standing on a tree stump, the bird's feathers finely enamelled in gilded and brown with striking yellow, blue and turquoise tail feathers, the beak gilded and the eyes realistically detailed, the tree stump beautifully finished in a heavy treacle brown enamel with aqua blue and black detail, the underside unglazed. The base is marked, apparently the author's signature. Height 29 cm Width 15 cm Depth 10.5 cm Weight 1036 grams Condition: There are a few hairline cracks to the base. These are subtle - only visible under a magnifying glass. There is minimal loss of gilding to the tip of the beak. Otherwise excellent quality. Completely intact colours, enamel and gilding. Please, study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. It is important to note that shipping costs include labour, packaging and postage. Price includes UK postage. Worldwide shipping is also available, please ask for a cost.
