SoldItem Reference: SA107349*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A magnificent example of a Victorian repousse sugar sifter / caster with an English sterling hallmark for Birmingham 1900-1901 - being on the cusp of the last year of Victoria's reign and the first year of Edward VII's reign. Standing 7" tall it is quite a majestic piece with all over repousse work with a vacant cartouche on each side, which could be engraved if desired. Made from a good gauge of sterling silver, this is a good solid and heavy piece, weighing in at 5.03 troy ounces / 156.3 grams. The makers initials T.H (into a heart) are also present within the hallmark for the silversmith, Thomas Hayes. Excellent condition.
