Description

1 British Victorian Hunting Oil Painting Portrait Jack Russell Terrier Dogs Ratting In Barn Chasing Rat Ratting By Edward Aistrop. Impress your clients & guests with this hunting statement artwork in your office or home wall space. Title "Jack Russell Terrier Dogs In Barn Chasing A Rat Ratting" By Edward Aistrop C1880. Subject portrait in side profile showing Two fierce Jack Russell Terrier dogs facing towards the right chasing a rat who is running away in an old barn. Both dogs are panting chasing and are intent on capturing killing the rat prey. The dog closest to the viewer is white and black, the other dog is white and brown. A good size with the frame being 40 cm high and 46 cm wide. A great example of the animal breed. Oil on board with a front protective glass cover. Signed bottom corner by the known British animal artist Edward Aistrop. In our opinion this is very fine example of his work. Set in a traditional original wood frame which has been later painted black. Circa 1880 late 19th century Victorian era. Artist biography Edward Aistrop was a British Impressionist & Modern artist. Aistrops' works have been exhibited at galleries & auction houses around the wor...
