Description

Original Antique "Bramah & Co" Fully Restored Luxury safe. A very rare Bramah & Co safe in a stunning fully restored working condition. We bring to you this very rare excellent condition "Bramah" Patent steel safe made in England attributing the very famous lock maker Bramah & Co of 124 Piccadilly London in around C1850. Joseph Bramah designed the first unpickable 'Bramah' lock in 1784, he was so confident in his locks, he held a challenge with prize money for people to try to pick. 64 years later an American locksmith eventually picked the lock after months of research and 51 hours in total of picking spread out over 16 days. The Bramah lock has 18 different wafers, which allows for 470 million possible permutations. These locks were so good, a well known phrase came into common circulation 'it's a bramah' meaning it is as good as you can get. This fantastic quality and very secure safe is truly a museum piece and has had no expense spared in its full restoration which has been completely carried out in house by ourselves, Lincoln Restorations. This lovely safe features highly glazed black paintwork featuring a Metallic pearl gold centre panel in the door which is ...
