Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A simply stunning and very fine quality Dutch 19th century cheval mirror. c1890. The beautifully figured rosewood stand with fruit-wood inlaid chevron marquetry, is adorned with gilt-bronze mounts of superior quality. To the top is an ormolu surmounted shaped pediment centred with a gilt-bronze ribbon & bow motif with musical instruments, surrounded by floral motifs, flanked by elegant flaming urn finials to each stand post. The gilt-bronze mounts having developed a beautifully aged patination. Having many exquisite highly detailed mounts adorning this fine mirror, so please inspect closely. Gilt-bronze completely surrounds the original mirror, with the mirror plate having expected but minor signs of age distressing, which simply adds to its elegant aged charm. This very fine mirror stands on four ormolu mounted splayed legs with the most delightful very detailed lion-paw feet, with the original castors. A very desirable antique mirror which would be an elegant addition to any bedroom, with a very useable mirror. In excellent antique condition, lovely warm patina to the wood, which has simply been enhanced with beeswax. Very ...
