Description

This is a superb top of the range Longines 12.68z from 1954. The heavy bee hive case with deep ridged sides and sharp lugs is made of solid 9ct gold and is stamped with the full set of British hallmarks for 1954. The case measures 34mm diameter excluding the winding crown. The movement is the gold plated Calibre 12.68Z widely regarded as Longines finest production movement and one of the best movements made by any of the top swiss makers. Its certainly in most watchmakers top five movements. What really sets this watch apart is the sublime and totally original two tone fancy decorated dial, it has a fine even surface patina to give away its 70 year life, its clearly been very well cared for. Its just beautiful and you will probably never see another like it. The movement has just been fully serviced and is running to within original Longines specification, Overall this watch is in outstanding original condition and highly sought after by Longines collectors. We can fit any colour or style of strap and keep most things in stock. Like all of our watches it comes with a full 12 month warranty and we can provide any future servicing you may require. We offer a hig...
