Price

SoldItem Reference: SA107424*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A most unusual and very pretty letter opener in sterling silver with a guilloche enamel panel to the front. The pretty pale pink fades into an almost white colour and then back to very pale pink below the decorative silver ferrule. The silver surrounding the panel is cut which creates a an additional sparkle. The blade is also sterling silver and hallmarked on the front for London 1893 and the reverse side decorated with an engraved decoration. As useful as beautiful measuring 10 1/2" in length.
