Description

A stunning pair of late Victorian or Edwardian Opera glasses dating to the turn of the century, around 1900. French in origin, each eye piece is signed, Iris, Paris together with the mark for Iris ("I" inside shaped lozenge). The telescopic lorgnette handle extends from 5" to 7 1/2". They are clad in the most decorative Mother of Pearl or Nacre shell with it's magical iridescent qualities. The metallic frame is made from brass having been meticulously professionally cleaned and polished, restoring them to their former glory. Excellent working condition, measuring 5" wide x 2" x 2" while folded up. Complete with a drawstring pochette. Item: 44402 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From the UK
