Description

*Price is per light. 3 available. A particularly large example of an original enamel pendant light by Thorlux, c.1940. They are finished in traditional green enamel with white interiors and two of the set have retained some of their original labels. They hang on a metal rod which has a small ceiling fitting, designed to be screwed directly to the ceiling. They could be converted to a chain hanging if preferred. They are in good original condition and display well. There are signs of age and wear but no major losses or damages. They are ready to install but we would always recommend that the light is checked and fitted by a professional electrician. Approximate Measurements: Diameter of shade : 17 3/4" (45cm) Height including hanging fitting : 39" (99cm) Height to top of light : 18" (46cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
