Description

A lovely Georgian mahogany tilt-top table dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has a circular mahogany top standing on a turned baluster support with tripod splayed legs and pad feet. It has a nice rich colour and is strong and sturdy with a good level top. The tilting mechanism is smooth with a strong catch. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few small surface marks and light knocks and a minor old shrinkage split in the top but nothing detrimental and overall it is strong and sturdy. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
