Description

A good quality early 20th century freestanding Chinese antique oriental teak chest with deeply carved scenes to the front and top of boats in the water surrounded by trees, pagodas and people in traditional clothing within a cherry blossom border. The sides and back have carved landscape scenes and the chest stands on shaped cabriole Chinese foo dog feet and retains its original embossed brass backplate and latch and it also comes with a lock and key. Inside, the chest is lined in camphor wood which has a lovely aroma. This piece is great for storage but would also make a great coffee table with a glass top fitted.
