Description

A beautiful gold bronze Ormolu candelabra, skillfully electrified in our workshops with silk braided cord. A painstaking conversion to electric of this superb Renaissance piece attributed to Ferdinand Barbedienne. Rising from a carved and scroll footed base is a twisted tri-foil Birdcage, surmounted by a bevy of twisted Acanthus, leaved arms, curling up and out, swooping to foliate candle holders and sleeves to accord. The whole piece is completely original following a Sympathetic restoration, and featuring the original Gold finish and lovely rich patination.

Internal Ref: Ormolu candelabra
