Description

A charming British School family silhouette, showing a mother, father and daughter. The daughter holds a riding crop. The family is pictured in the garden and at the edges of the picture are trellises. The picture is in its original ebonised frame which has some age related wear - the silhouette is painted on paper. A lovely example of a family silhouette. It measures (with frame) 38.5 width and 312.5 high. Actual size of painting 28.5 width and 21cm high.
