Description

Add a touch of classic charm to your space with this large British postwar oil painting of a Red Coat Huntsman and his loyal Hound Dogs on a grand Fernie Hunt by John Theodore Kenney. This one-of-a-kind piece captures the spirit of hunting and would make a great addition to any art collection. Impress your clients & guests with this hunting masterpiece to display in your home or office. Title "Huntsman & Hounds Fernie Hunt Leicestershire" dated 1957 by John Theodore Kenney. Subject beautiful portrait in side profile showing a large pack of dogs English Scent Hounds, who are all gathered around the red coat huntsman who is on his thoroughbred brown horse, he is blowing his golden trumpet, set in the beautiful green rolling hills countryside view of Leicestershire in the known Fernie Hunt. Above with mainly dark stormy sky with small spots of blue shining through. A great example of the animal breeds. Oil on canvas board. An excellent display size with the frame being 68 cm high and 89 cm wide. Signed lower corner by the known British artist John Theodore Kenney. In our opinion this is among his finest works. Set in a traditional decorative moulded frame which enhances thi...
