Description

Expertly painted in the 19th century Britain, this oil painting captures the regal charm of King Charles Spaniel dogs. A perfect addition to any art collection, it offers a glimpse into British history and the enduring admiration for these beloved animals. Absolutely stunning. Impress your clients & guests with this animal statement masterpiece in your office or home wall space. Title "King Charles Spaniel Dogs Seated". Subject portrait in side profile showing two ever so cute adorable brown & black King Charls Spaniel dogs, they are both in the seated sitting position. Looking curiously towards the right which is so fascinating, set in rural countryside. A nice small size with the frame being 31 cm high and 34 cm wide. Oil on board. Unsigned English school artist. In our opinion this is very fine example of the animal breed. Set in a very fine decorative gilt leave foliage wood frame which enhances this painting even further.. Circa late 19th century Victorian era. Provenance from a high end art auction in the southern Shires & in collection of Cheshire Antiques Consultant LTD. Highly sought after due to the collectible animal nature of subject matter. With hanging th...
