Description

A pretty antique floral cluster ring set with seven tiny sparkling round-cut diamonds in an illusion setting. The 18-carat yellow gold shank has a squared-off profile, tapering out to platinum shoulders and a decorative cut-out back. The ring is in good solid antique condition; the openwork gallery at the back of the mount has a section missing (see photos), but this is not noticeable when the ring is worn and is cosmetic rather than structural. Stamped inside: 7972 HS 18CT PLAT. Size K (UK), approximately 5 (US). The flower head is 7mm in diameter. Weight: 1.8g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING!
