Description

A pair of top quality Victorian solid brass five candle swing arm candelabra c.1880. Sturdy circular weighted base with column above supporting the five arm candelabra. Two arms set either side with decorative brass framework below. Each with broad sconce and candle holder above, the top arms on each side adjusting outwards so that the candelabra can be set against a wall. Single candle holder set to the centre of the top. The candelabra branches removable from the base sections allowing the bases to be used as single candlesticks. Each presented in immaculate condition with a deep shine.
