Description

This is a beautiful antique continental silver handled walking stick marked AB 800, circa 1880 in date. The striking stick features an ornate silver Crutch handle featuring a profusely embossed dotted design marked, on a gentle tapering malacca shaft. Add an extravagant element to your daily life with this wonderful walking cane. Condition: In excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 86 cm x Width 9.5 cm x Depth 2 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 2 foot, 10 inches x Width 4 inches x Depth 1 inch. Malacca wood, rare and exotic, also known as "King of canes" was the most commonly used material in making the cane shafts where the standard grip was rounded and metallic. Today, designer and collector canes have sterling silver handles, and are made with wooden shafts made from various woods, including Malacca and bamboo. Ornate designs, such as animal heads, skulls, and various emblems may also be carved into the wooden handles; these may make them harder to wield, but some find them more attractive. Malacca is one species of rattan found on the coast of Sumatra. Rattan palms have long, slender stems, and were perfect for fashion...
