Description

A superb fine quality pair of highly decorative Florentine giltwood overmantle mirrors, dating from Circa 1870. These rectangular mirrors consist of superbly hand carved giltwood frames with arrow beaded borders and scrolling acanthus leaf foliate decoration in high relief with shell ornamentation, they can be hung portrait or landscape. The gilding is original and they are certain to make a charming addition to that one special room in your home. Condition: In excellent original condition with the original gilding, having only been beautifully cleaned and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation of condition. Dimensions in cm: Height 83 cm x Width 61 cm x Depth 6 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 2 foot, 9 inches x Width 2 foot x Depth 2 inches. Florentine frames made in Florence are a centuries-old tradition maintained by several artisan guilds. Florentine items produced from the mid-19th century onward, typically reflect a contemporary interpretation of Renaissance art and furnishings. They have an ornate appearance, and are typically gold gilded. The earliest manufactured mirrors were pieces of polished stone such as obsidian, a naturally occurri...
