This is a good quality antique George V Afghan Turkman Rug, measuring 5ft 2" long by 3ft 1" wide, believed to be from the Turkmen tribal area, Afghanistan, displaying red, purple, blue, fawn & white colours on a symmetrical patterned background, circa 1915, in good original condition. The natural hand-dyed sheep's wool, most likely from cochineal, due to its rich colours, was made by tribesmen and has been hand-spun before being constructed on a woven loom. The Afghan Turkman Rug displays three borders, geometric in design, with a symmetrical floral motif patterned background and a symmetrical geometric diagonal hexagonal centre, interspersed with a detailed pattern...
