Description

Royal Vienna gilt bowl with classical scenes, Austria, Beehive mark.

An exceptional antique Vienna porcelain bowl hand painted with a scene from Greek mythology. The bowl is painted with a continuous mythological theme throughout. The piece has a gilded painted decoration in gold floral pattern on the dark green background on the top and bottom edge of the bowl.

The piece bears the beehive mark of Imperial & Royal Manufactory "Royal Vienna" which corresponds to the mentioned period (1774-1827) stamped asymmetrically in blue underglaze. This bowl has a style of porcelain that has a particular decorative style that draws on paintings and sculpture of the Renaissance with strong elements of Greek Classicism.

Imperial and Royal Porcelain Manufactory Vienna, 1718-1864, produced decorative and table porcelain, figurines. With the help of two workers from the Meissen manufactory Claudius Innocentius Du Paquier, 1718-1744, succeeded in producing porcel...
