Description

This lovely stool is a tangible piece of British history, crafted by B. North & Son of West Wycombe for the coronation of King George VI. Designed by Edward Barnsley, it was part of the regal ceremony held at Westminster Abbey on 12th May 1937. The stool features a stuff-over saddle seat, supported by chamfered squared section legs, and is finished with a distinctive silver limed wax, giving it a regal presence. This stool bears the stamp 'GR VI Coronation' along with the maker's mark, confirming its authenticity and royal connection. As time passes, this stool not only serves as a functional piece of furniture but also as a collector's item, capturing the essence of English heritage and becoming increasingly sought after by enthusiasts and historians alike. Height: 19 inches (49 cm) Width: 18 inches (46 cm) Depth: 12 1/2 inches (32 cm)
