Description

Behold the enchanting beauty of this child's elm spindle back Windsor rocking chair, a delightful piece that exudes timeless charm. Crafted from rich elm wood, it boasts an inviting colour and a warm patination that tells stories of yesteryears. Lovingly restored to its former glory and finished with a protective layer of wax, this rocking chair promises both durability and style. Its rockers, thoughtfully replaced in the late 19th century, add to its historical allure, making it not just a piece of furniture but a treasured heirloom that will rock gently through the generations.
