Description

An elegant silver pendant and necklace, dating to the early part of the 20th Century. This charming pendant is suspended via a chain from the bail. The bail is set with a row of clear paste stones to the front and is marked with continental hallmarks to the reverse. The body of the pendant is made as a flower, with the contrasting coloured cut paste stones delightfully representing its different parts. There are three suspended drops with clear cut paste stones, which help to heighten the pendant further and give lovely movement to it when being worn. Presented with a sterling silver chain, it is ready to be worn and enjoyed. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £8.00 UK £16.00 Europe £22.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no damage and no missing stones. The chain clasp is working and strong. Hallmarks :- Marked to the bail. Continental hallmarks. Date :- Circa 1920. Pendant height (including bail) :- 4.3 cms. Pendant width :- 2.8 cms. Chain length :- 40.5 cms.
