Description

Ernst Louizor (1938-2011) a beautiful oil painting on board. This vibrant artwork depicts a bustling village scene, elegantly mounted in its original carved wooden frame from Haiti. With measurements of 63cm x 53cm including the frame, and 49cm x 39cm without. Born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti in October 1938, Louizor displayed his prodigious talent from a young age. At just 13, he joined the esteemed Centre d'Art and refined his skills under the guidance of Wilmino Domond. Continuing his artistic education at the Academie des Beaux-Arts, Louizor studied with the renowned artist George Ramponeau. Regarded as the Caribbean's leading impressionist painter, Louizor's compositions breathe life onto the canvas. His distinct style and masterful use of vibrant colours and textures bring a unique vibrancy and emotion to his artwork. Often depicting bustling marketplaces and picturesque seascapes, Louizor showcases the beauty and richness of his Caribbean heritage. Louizor's artistic prowess has garnered international recognition, with exhibitions in Europe, the United States, and Haiti. His works have found their way into the private collections of art enthusiasts worldwide, sol...
