Description

A very impressive Art Deco silver cigarette box by William Comyns and Sons Ltd. The rectangular box is decorated with a fine engine-turned pattern to the lid and the sides are smoothly polished. The based is neatly finished with a leatherette with a neat plain polished border around the edges. The lid opens with a good hinge to reveal the interior which is lined with a light wood with two dividers can be repositioned to create different sized compartments to accommodate cigarettes. This adaptable design means the box could be repurposed for a variety of items such as jewellery, watches or chocolates. A superb solid silver box, of good weight and quality. Hallmarked to one side of the box and also on the side of the lid by the London Assay Office with a date mark for 1937 and Lion Passant indicating the finest sterling silver. The maker's marks for William Comyns and Sons Ltd are also clearly visible. Condition: In great condition. There is the merest dint near the bottom edge of the back, only noticeable in certain light and mentioned only for absolute accuracy. Measurements: 19.5 cm Height: 6cm Depth: 9cm Weight: 675 grams All measurements...
