Description

Wonderful button back parlour chair with walnut frame from the fabulous Victorian era. The frame is structurally in solid condition with wonderful crisp carved scrolls. Upholstered in a striking red velour fabric which is clean with no rips, or stains and has no buttons missing. Supported by beautifully carved legs at the front and splay legs at the back, terminating with white China castors. The depth of the seat and shaped back adds not only to the comfort but support as you relax. A very stylish chair that will look amazing in the right location. Seat height 39cm
