

SA1077009

Exceptionally Rare Georgian Wrythen Ale Glass c1720

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1077009*Date of manufacture: 1700

Dimensions

Height = 12 cm (4.7")

Description

Technical Description A very rare example of an 18th-century wrythen ale glass dating to c1720. Fine sharp wrythen down the trumpet bowl sitting directly on a conical foot with snapped pontil. Date & Origin England, c1720. Period of George I. Condition Excellent, no chips cracks or restoration. Tiny tooth mark on rim which is insignificant. Dimensions Height: 12cm Rim diameter: 7.6cm Foot diameter: 7.2cm Historical Context In 1725 Peter the Great died at age 52 after plunging into icy waters to try and save his drowning soldiers and in 1727 in Brazil, Europeans begin planting coffee for the first time

Internal Ref: 2024052912

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

