

SA1077057

Antique Derby Figurine
Shoemaker, early 19th century, rare.

Price

GBP 700

| USD $947 | EUR 819

Item Reference: SA1077057

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

Modelled as a young woman standing balancing against a tree, the young man seated at her feet fitting a red color shoe on her left foot resting over his knee, further shoes by his side, on an irregular shaped base with applied leaves and flowers. The figurine adorned with rich enamel painting. The drawn clothing of the characters stands out, especially the woman's dress which carefully drawn with floral design and each flower is painted in detail. The characters are painted in complementary dark blue colors, accentuated by rich gilding. Perhaps the woman's posture expresses a sense of embarrassment.

The Royal Crown Derby Porcelain Company is the oldest remaining English porcelain manufacturer, based in Derby, England The company, particularly known for its high-quality bone china, having produced tableware and ornamental items since approximately 1750.

On base painted factory marks in red which confirms the stated date of manufacture of this fine and rare Derby figurine and incised pattern ?78. Int...

Seller Details

Gillers Antiques Ltd

Buckland House Buntingford Hertfordshire SG9 OPY United Kingdom

Tel: 07738 009924

International Tel: +44 7738 009924

