Description

A stunning, impressive and unusual vintage 2.80 carat emerald, 1.75 carat ruby, 2.10 carat sapphire and 0.26 carat diamond, 18 carat yellow gold and 18 carat white gold window brooch made by Gubelin; part of our diverse gemstone jewellery and estate jewelry collections. This stunning and unusual vintage brooch has been crafted in 18ct yellow gold and 18ct white gold settings. The brooch has been modelled in the form of a window with flowers, behind a wrought iron grille. The anterior portion of the brooch is embellished with an impressive 18ct white gold pierced decorated frame, replicating the curvilinear scrolling ornamental grille of the window. This finely crafted vintage brooch is embellished with five sapphires, ten rubies and six emeralds; each individually set mixed cut gemstone bears carved details replicating the organic details of the floral spray. The gemstones array incorporates impressive individually claw set transitional modern brilliant round cut diamonds. The spray is further embellished with two claw set round faceted cut yellow gemstones*, providing further visual dynamic to the piece and completing the design. This floral brooch secures to the ...
