Description

A very rare 'Picture Back' teaspoon dating from the mid 18th Century. This wonderful example features a fabulous Galleon picture back. The spoon bowl retains a light wash of gilding and features hammer marks to the outer edges where it has been raised from a flat sheet of silver by the silversmith. The handle is Hanoverian in design and the spoon is bottom marked. Picture back spoons are rather scarce these days. To find a Galleon, dating to the mid 18th Century is a wonderful find and a great addition to any collection. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £8.00 UK £16.00 Europe £26.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no splits or dents. The bowl tip is excellent and crispness of the picture very good. Hallmarks :- Small items of flatware from this period, were only ever struck with the Maker's mark and Sterling Lion. Date :- London c1750. Maker :- Thomas & William Chawner. Length :- 12 cms. Bowl width :- 2.4 cms. (widest point).
