Description

An exquisite Dutch silver mounted perfume/ cologne bottle. Dating to circa 1920, this gorgeous perfume or cologne bottle originates from Amsterdam. The cut glass body is attractively shaped and extensively engraved with beautiful baskets of flowers, floral garlands and tied bows. The original, shaped stopper is also engraved to the top and sides with flowers, continuing the quality feel. The neck of the bottle is mounted with a pierced silver collar with floral motifs, with the base standing in a matching silver frame. The frame features a mythical bird to both sides and is detachable. A superb example, being both decorative and usable. Dimensions below.
