Description

A very rare opportunity to own a good early antique William IV flame mahogany extending dining table in the manner of Gillows of Lancaster, Circa 1835 in date. The table top having a moulded edge with a pull out action and four leaves, with brass clips. The leaves can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. The table has been hand-crafted from solid flame mahogany which has a beautiful grain, and is raised on five substantial ring turned and tapering reeded legs that terminate in heavy brass cup castors. It measures just over 11ft in length fully extended, which makes it ideal for large dinner parties. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
