Description

A lovely Victorian watercolour of three young children, probably from the same family - circa 1870. In the centre is the older daughter wearing a blue dress, with younger daughter to the left shown holding a ball, and a son to the right dressed in riding clothes and he is holding a whip. This charming painting is in a pretty gilt frame. The mount is slightly age related worn, but the painting is in good condition. It measures 51cm high x 57cm wide (inc frame). Actual size of painting - 34cm high x 49cm wide.
