Description

Behold a resplendent piece of history, the late 18th-century Queen Anne-style pier glass. This stunning mirror is a testament to the craftsmanship of a bygone era, featuring carved wood and gilt gesso that frame the reflective surface with ornate elegance. The gilt finish, gracefully aged, bestows upon the piece a dignified patina that whispers tales of its storied past. At its heart lies the original bevelled mirror plate, its edges cut at an angle to catch the light and create a captivating sparkle, much like the glint of sunlight on a tranquil river. This pier glass is not merely a mirror but a portal to the luxurious aesthetics of the Queen Anne period, reflecting not just the visage of the beholder but the opulent soul of the 18th century. Height: 34 3/4 inches (88 cm) Width: 23 inches (58 cm) Depth: 2 1/4 inches (6 cm)
